

2-nd Speech Language Therapist's Congress of Baltic states:

Neurological Speech and Language Disorders: toward evidence-based practice

We would like to invite speech language therapists who work in health care or educational institutions to participate actively in 2-nd Speech Language Therapist's Congress of Baltic states: Neurological Speech and Language Disorders: toward evidence-based practice. The congress will be held on 17th of April in 2015 in Lithuania (Šiauliai)

The purpose of this congress is to share interdisciplinary knowledge, experience, attitudes to the neurological origin of children and adults with speech, swallowing, voice and language disorders, prevention and evidence-based approaches to overcome them.

Languages: Lithuanian (with translation to English) and English (with translation to Lithuanian)

Place of the Congress: Siauliai University library
Vytauto str. 84 – 205 aud.
LT-76352 Siauliai (Lithuania)

Congress member fee: 30 euro

All participants are kindly asked to register and pay congress fee till 15th of March, 2015.

Name: LLA (Lithuanian Logopedists Association)

Reg.code: 9073218

Address: P. Visinskio 25, Siauliai

Bank: AB SEB bank

SWIFT code: CBVILT2X

Account nr.: LT897044060002263446

Payment purpose: congress 2015; name, surname

Key speakers, topics of their presentations

dr. I. Bakaniene (Lithuania)

The links between brain maturity and language development

doc. dr. H. Roddam (UK)

Evidence-Based Speech Therapy Management of Paediatric Dysarthria: International Research and Practice

prof. dr. S. Tubele (Latvia)

Brain-based learning

doc. dr. A. McAllister (Sweden)

Childhood Apraxia of Speech – Diagnostic Criteria, Comorbidity and Evidence Based Intervention

doc. dr. P. Rautakoski (Finland)

The Social Model of Aphasia Therapy

More information: <http://www.su.lt/sqnsf/naujienos/15404-2-asis-baltijos-ali-logoped-kongresas>